

Please leave the existing plan alone, the incoming phone calls that we already receive from unknown callers is enough to drive anyone crazy and now this! As a consumer if I want to be contacted about a business or product then I will sign up on a list or contact the company I am interested in. It should not be the other way around.